The census report shows that the wife gave birth to two children and that they have two children living, however, they do not list them on this report. The age for Lem does not agree (he was born March 28, 1883). Also, he lists "Texas" as the place he was born. (He was born in Marion County, Alabama). In the 1910 Census, Lem Belk and his wife both are employed as an "attendant" at North Texas Hospital For The Insane, Terrell City, Kaufman County, Texas. (The information in the following paragraph makes me certain this is the "Lemual Berget Belk", son of William. Belk and Mary Matilda (Dowdy) Belk).

The WW I Draft for Lemual Burget Belk lists his birth date as March 28, 1883 and that he is 35 years old. He lists his home address as Salado, Bell County, Texas. He lists his "present Occupation" as "supervisor" for the "insane Asylum", Box 1147, San Antonio, Texas. He lists his closest relative as "Mrs. L. B. Belk, Box 1147, San Antonio, Texas.

Notes for Herbert Franklin Dowdy:

Notes from Diana Lynn (Dowdy) Downward, youngest daughter.

After the death of his mother in 1924, when he was 13 years old, he was raised by his grandparents on a small farm near Cleburne, Johnson, Texas, and these farming roots would carry through to his love for his garden later in life. After a few years, he rejoined his father who had re-married and was living and working in Fort Worth, Tarrant, Texas. When he was 19 years old, he went to work as an upholsterer for Kroehler Furniture Manufacturing Company in Dallas, Dallas, Texas. He worked for Kroehler for a total of over 40 years, retiring at age 65.

He met his wife, Mildred Celestine O'Neal, in Dallas, Dallas, Texas, in 1938 and they were married on April 15, 1939. On December 22, 1941 he heeded the call of his country, and, without telling Mildred, joined the United States Navy.

After joining the Navy, their daughter, Eidola Jean, was born, on July 8, 1943, in Corpus Christi, Nuecus, Texas, while he was stationed there. He served in the Navy during the war, spending much of his time as an aircraft mechanic and pilot in the British West Indies. He often spoke of his adventures while stationed there and looked back on his hitch in the Navy with good memories. He was honorably discharged from the Navy as a Chief Petty Officer in October of 1945. He then returned to Dallas, Texas, and returned to work at Kroehler Furniture Company. On January 15, 1947, his second daughter, Diana Lynn, was born in Dallas, Texas. Also, after his discharge from the Navy, he was active in the Veterans of Foreign Wars Post #156.

Probably the only thing that Herbert loved more than to go fishing was to tell fish stories. Spinning his yarns about Giant Catfish, he was so believable that only way one could tell if they were true or not was by the little twinkle in his eye that gave away the truth.

He also loved to garden. The little mini-farm in his back yard was his pride and joy, and the many gatherings of vegetables that it yielded was a tribute to his ability and heritage as a farmer.

He was very active throughout his life and enjoyed not only fishing and gardening, but also active sports. He played basketball while in the Navy; his mantle was adorned with the many trophies he received for his abilities with a bowling ball; and he also loved golf and regularly played with his friends.

Notes for Mildred Celestine O'Neal:

Notes from Diana Lynn (Dowdy) Downward, youngest daughter.

Mildred's nickname was "Miggie". She graduated from the old Tech High School which was located in downtown Dallas, Texas. She always loved dancing and swimming. She went to Neilson's Beauty College on West Jefferson in Dallas, Texas, to become a Beautician.

It was her enthusiasm for dancing that brought about the meeting of Mildred and a young sailor, Herbert Franklin Dowdy. As the old song stated, "first comes love, then comes marriage", that came for Mildred and Herbert in 1939.

Mildred's working career saw her take diverse jobs. She utilized her beautician training both on a full-time and a part-time basis. When the need arose she was "Rosie, the Riveter" at North American Aviation Plant in Grand Prairie. Her real calling was to be a good homemaker whose home was so clean that you could have eaten off of the floor. A source of pride is the now giant oak tree that her daddy planted in the front yard of her home years ago.

Mildred loved her church and its activities especially CWF (Christians Women's Fellowship) and its service work days. She was a member of the Oakwoods Christian Church in Dallas, Texas.

In 1994 with her sister, Jewel Lynn Schulz, as her traveling companion, Mildred took her first plane trip and went to Honolulu, HI to visit her daughter, Diana Lynn and her husband Roger Lee Downward. Report has it that though she was a bit nervous she made the trip like a real trooper and loved it!
